

#1 - Pensieve

If I could keep my memories in a bottle
I'd save them up for when I'm sad
I don't mind going in circles
I'd hold on to what I had

Like gentle breeze
Weak in the knees
Oh something sweet
Maybe coz

I do regret
Gotta confess
Always attached
To the past

Wind back
Let's go right back to the beginning
When I wasn't insomniac
You know it's wrong when you're not sleeping
So turn around
For what it's worth

If I could keep my memories in a bottle
I'd view them all in cycle

Like gentle breeze
Weak in the knees
Oh something sweet
Maybe coz

I do regret
Gotta confess
Always attached
To the past

#2 - Mist

Reliving that day
Lashing down
No one's talking, except the rain

Raindrops falling
Every sound crystal clear
Towards the ending of us

Revolving, the rain keeps falling
Maybe, it just won't fade away

Sometimes it keeps floating
Drifting and blurring everything
Seeping into the rusty lock then
It opens

I once thought the rain would disappear and leave
Just disguises as mist
It never fades away

#3 - Revisit

Barren land
Covered with Memories, tears and sorrow
Just when it overflows
A tree grows

Bit by bit
There it blooms
And you come staring at it
Never spoken a word

Even when it rains
You'd stand under the sky
Wouldn't rely its shades
You're scared of walking near Scared that it gets harder

Deep down in your heart you know you don't have to come
You don't have to stay as it hurts, you could just run
You don't have to carry the weights of the tree trunk Doesn't have to be that

Why don't you just move on
I wonder
What makes you linger
And suffer
I wonder

And the tree gets tall
It's masking more and more
You stand there like before
Now I see through the shade
And the smile on your face

Deep down in your heart you know you don't have to come
You don't have to stay as it hurts, you could opt to run
Slowly I realise why you choose not to shun
It has to be this way

I kept misconceiving
What it takes
The field is nurtured by Memories, tears and joy
That's why you're here

#4 - Summer Ride (With No Brakes)

It's a sunny day
Let's come out and play
Sweating is okay
Have fun anyway

's been a long time since that day
Almost two years I'm afraid
Now that we can't fly away
Let's stay here enjoy this place

I'm not young anymore
No, I don't recall
When this feeling sprawled
And opened this damn door

Now I can't go back no more
Suddenly forced to explore
You know what, worst of it all
This fear has no cure

So I wish we can be this happy forever
I know it's foolish, everyday the end is getting closer
As we're getting older
Sure yeah right, sooner or later
This will all be lost in vapour
Now the heat is more than I can bear

Roller coaster ride
Leaves me high and dry
Nowhere else to hide
Heading to the sky

Having worries of this kind
Keeps me wondering reasons why
All our railways intertwine
While there is no guide

So I wish we can be this happy forever

Sure yeah right, sooner or later
This will all be lost in vapour
Now the heat is more than I can bear

Someone stop this train
Calm down have a drink
Let us rearrange
But then just one blink
We crash and burn in the flame
And there's no one to blame

Even if I
Finally found what I wanna hold onto
When it drifts away
There is really nothing you can do
The heatwave's too much for you
Close your eyes, slightly amused
Soon your mind is covered in blue
Drench yourself into the summer cool

#5 - The Brightest Light

Never-ending
Grey clouds floating
Time once
Kept replaying

It's now passing
It's depressing
But I drag on

The brightest light
Dazzles my mind
Should I
Could I
Leave the time behind

The brightest light
Shining brighter
Inviting
It's fine
Let's try

Look around
It's better right
Hey It's time to say goodbye
To time
The time that traps
The time that hurts

The brightest light
Sheds light on life
I should
I could

The brightest light
Embracing time
The time with
The name
Future
